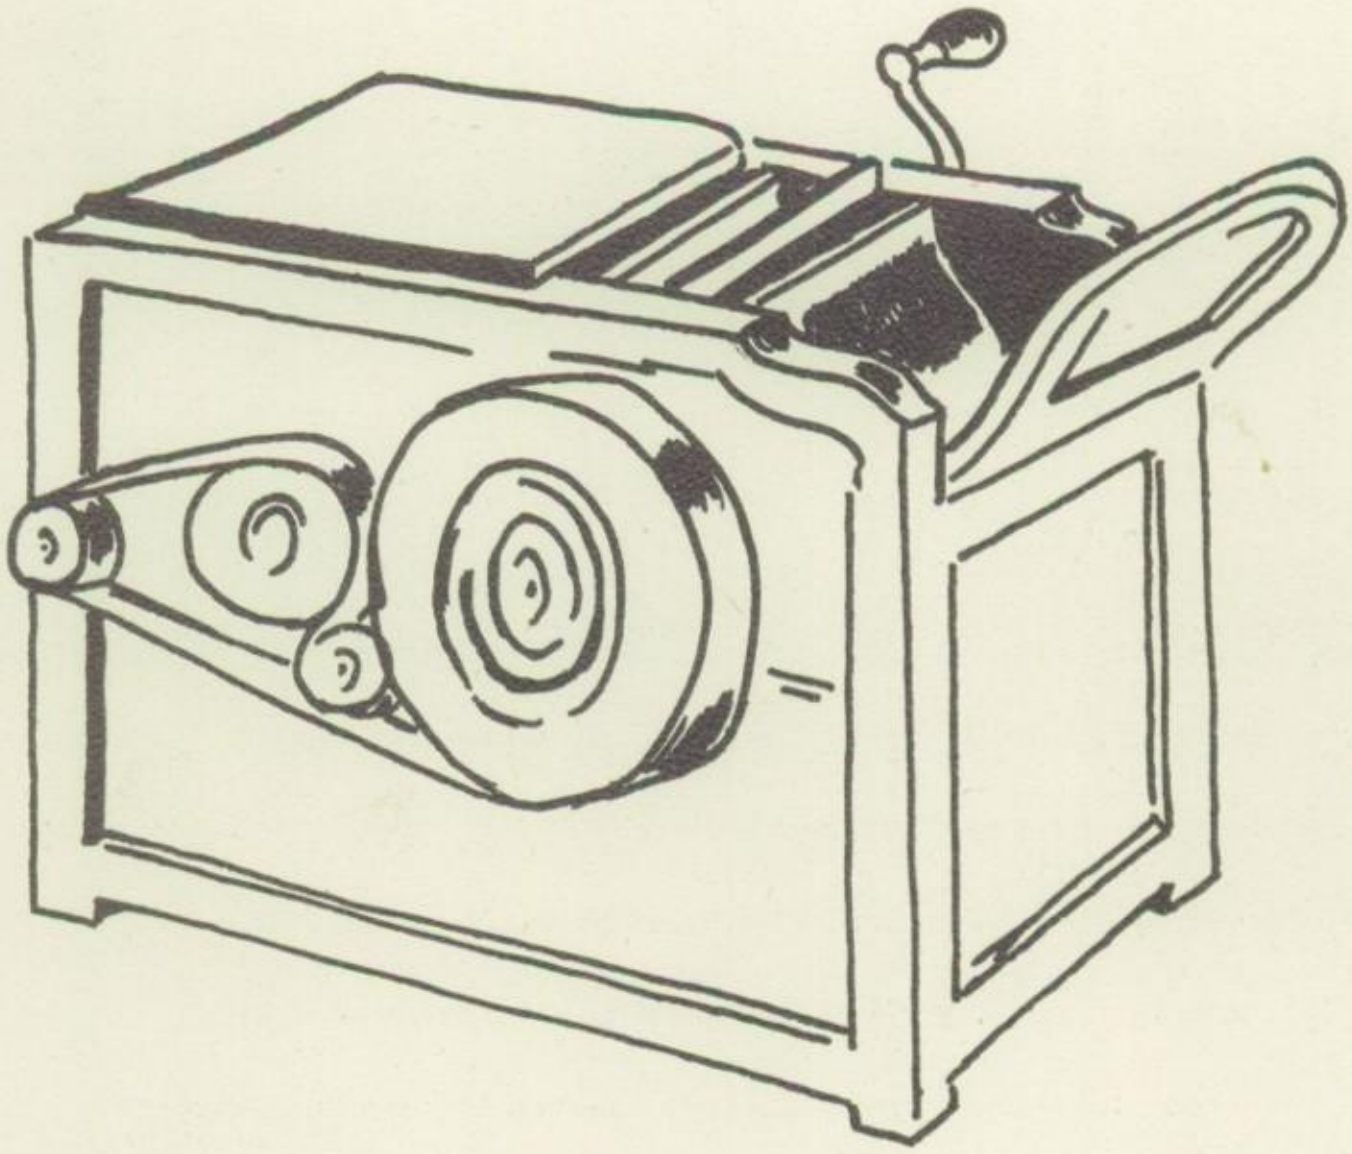
The COTTON GIN



WESTBORO HIGH SCHOOL

June, 1956

RCA

We, the staff of the '56 COTTON GIN, are pleased to present to you your yearbook. We have earnestly tried to make it a living memory of your days at Westboro High - a record of the inspiring lessons, of the once-in-a-lifetime fun, and of the everyday life in that wonderful place called W.H.S.

We hope that in the years to come this book will help you to remember the days of happiness you knew in school.

The Staff

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1956, of Westboro High School proudly dedicate our yearbook, THE COTTON GIN, to Miss Mary B. Conroy, our teacher, advisor, and friend.

"The noblest contribution which any one can make for the benefit of posterity, is that of a good character. The richest bequest which any one can leave to the youth of her native land, is that of a shining, spotless example." - (Winthrop)

IN MEMORIAM
SHEILA ARONSON

On June 9, 1953, a tornado struck Westboro and took from us our friend and classmate, Sheila Aronson. We find it hard to realize that her place is now empty.
